

Supporting Redkite together.

Thinking of ways to fundraise can be daunting, some suggestions below might give you the boost you need to come up with a great fundraising idea....

---

- Hold a morning tea and ask your guests to make a donation to Redkite
- Hold a sporting challenge or tournament; golf day, cricket day, cycling challenge with online sponsorship donations
  - Host a charity golf match and invite your corporate clients along or sponsor employees to participate in fun runs.
- Host a Barefoot bowling tournament
  - Have department teams pitting their skills against each other and you could include drinks and a BBQ. You could also have fun fundraising at the event such as bowling as close to the beer as possible wins a prize.
- Organise a wine tasting at the office for Friday afternoon drinks
  - Redkite can arrange for a Wine & Cheese tasting afternoon which will give your staff a chance to have a wine tasting, mingle after work and learn more about Redkite.
- Host a trivia night to determine who really is the smartest employee!
  - Redkite has its very own Quiz DVD that you can play in your office, a clever way to raise money! (see attached flyer for further information)
- Breakfast in the park – get your friends and colleagues along and cook a bbq brekky
- Go Red for Redkite day
  - Get your employees involved in a fun dress up Friday with a splash of Red
- Sell your second hand books
  - Selecting a time of year when people bring the old books in and they are sold during lunch hour with proceeds to the charity.
- Grand openings/launches
  - Raise awareness and profile of your organisation, whilst attracting publicity and donations for Redkite.
